In a one-page statement, include your answer to the following question:

- How has your involvement in P.A.D. helped you as a military spouse, and how has the fact that you are a military spouse affected your P.A.D. service?

This grant has been established in honor of Rhonda Hill. Rhonda's involvement in P.A.D. began as a law student in 1980 when she joined P.A.D.'s Chester C. Cole Chapter where she served as its Justice. Rhonda's P.A.D. experience includes service as a District Justice for two different Districts, a recipient of the Meritorious Service Award, and membership in the Distinguished Service Chapter. In 2008, Rhonda was elected International Justice and was again honored to be elected International Justice in 2010. She is the only woman to have served two terms as International Justice and is the only person since the 1950's to serve concurrent terms as International Justice. Rhonda is married to fellow P.A.D. J. Derek Hill. They currently reside on Desert Mountain in Arizona.
