This grant has been established in honor of retired Brigadier General J. Derek Hill. General Hill has over 29 years of military service to our nation and is a long serving member of P.A.D. for over 35 years. His last military assignment was the Deputy Adjutant General, Air, for the Iowa National Guard. Prior to that assignment, Derek was the Director of Emergency Management for the State of Iowa and the Governor's Homeland Security Advisor. In P.A.D., Derek has served as a chapter officer of Hull Chapter, District Justice, International Associate Tribune, International Secretary, and International Justice. He has received P.A.D.'s Meritorious Service Award and is a member of the Distinguished Service Chapter. Derek is married to fellow P.A.D. Rhonda Hill. They currently reside on Desert Mountain in Arizona.
